

The Season of Thankfulness to Be One of Marked Quiet Socially

THE HUMAN TOUCH

High thoughts and noble in all lands
Help me, my soul is fed by such.
But ah, the touch of lips and hands—
The human touch!
Warm, vital, close, life's symbols dear—
These need I most, and now and here.

—Richard Burton.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.
Thanksgiving week is to be another seven days filled with good works, an occasion in which a large number of women are interested, being the musical which the board of managers of the Children's day nursery has announced for Saturday, December 2, at the home of Mrs. J. S. Cosden.
Invitations were issued yesterday, each matron of the board being privileged to invite three guests, and in addition to being a worthy undertaking for a good cause, the affair promises to be very delightful socially. Misses Semmes W. Parish, J. S. Cosden, Fanny L. Moore, Frank A. Haskell, Lynn R. Wallace and Frank H. Greer compose the committee on arrangements.
The meeting of the Shakespeare club, deferred from last Friday owing to the interest of the members of the Y. W. C. A. campaign will be held and friends in a pretty evening affair Wednesday.

Progressive games, the singing of school songs and the serving of a supper went to make up the events of the pleasant evening for Misses Frances Branch, Leona Galbreath, Mary Hill and Maurine Butler; Messrs. Madison Blevins, Ivan Grove, Francis Schmidt, William Creekmore and Harry Miller.

The twentieth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Snyder was made the occasion of a happy surprise by a party of their friends on Wednesday evening. The evening was devoted to dancing and progressive games, and refreshments were served by the guests, they having neglected to inform the hostess of their coming. Mrs. Snyder was presented with a beautiful vase holding a cluster of her wedding flowers, the carnation.

Mrs. Frank A. Haver entertained a company of young women with a delightful informal afternoon Friday in compliment to Miss George's Bird of Lawrenceville, Ga., who is visiting the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Bird.

CARD COMPANIES.

Mrs. T. T. Wells' attractive appointed auction on Thursday afternoon at Teacup Inn took precedence in the week's card companies, it having been the largest affair of its kind.

A suggestion of approaching Thanksgiving was made in all the decorations and appointments of the company, the whole making an appropriate setting into which the guests were informally welcomed by Mrs. Wells. There were players for 11 tables and the contest for high score was most interesting, resulting in the award of first prize to Mrs. Roy Getman, who received a beautiful houndstooth pillow of silver cloth. Second honor in the form of a picture and easel went to Mrs. Harry D. Murdoch and the guest favor, which was a duplicate of the second prize, was awarded to Mrs. R. H. Howell of Crystal Springs, Miss. The luncheon tables were decorated with a fruit centerpiece and the place cards and napkins were appropriately designed. Three courses were served. Matrons and young women of the party were: Misses Charles E. Dent, M. Ellis, Roscoe M. Griffith, Roy Getman, E. J. Bradford, Lee C. Wells, J. W. Sanders, Rex S. Walker, Eugene Lorton, Frank H. Casbeer, C. S. Bruce, S. Dezell Hawley, Anthony M. O'Brien, Frank E. Shallenberger, Harry D. Murdoch, A. M. Meeks, T. J. Goley, W. A. Rogers, W. H. Moody, John P. Moore, Harry J. Colburn.

Nat E. Ligon, P. P. Milliken, Walter M. Mount, A. F. Moss, C. S. Avery, C. C. Boone, Carl H. Hudson, R. R. Howell, Crystal Springs, Miss. George G. Bayne, Quincy, Ill.; Misses Jane Carpenter Lyman, Lillian Lorton of Muskogee and Mary Petty of Barnesville, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Y. Vandever opened their pretty suite in the Hammett apartments to a company of friends Friday evening when they entertained at auction.

Matrons and men for four tables were invited and as a setting for the gathering of bridge devotees the cardroom was attractively decorated in yellow chrysanthemums and ferns. The prize winners were Mrs. Harry D. Murdoch, who received a brocade tray, and Mr. L. E. Roberts a library knife. Consolation honors went to Mr. Hal Rambo, Mrs. J. H. Hayner and Miss Helen Anderson assisted the hostess in the serving of a three-course supper. Invitations for the evening were to Messrs. and Mesdames L. G. Rosser, J. M. Hayner, Roy D. Gwynne, P. M. Boyer, Hal Rambo, L. E. Roberts, Dr. and Mrs. Harry D. Murdoch, Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Cohour and Miss Anderson.

Wheel club members and special guests for two additional tables gathered in the attractive home of Mrs. Harry F. Castle yesterday afternoon for the club's usual game of auction.

There were four tables playing in all, and the high score prize was of dainty lingerie. Luncheon was served from the card tables, decorated in centerpieces of pink chrysanthemums and roses. Besides the members, the following matrons and girls played: Mrs. Thomas J. Woods, Mrs. Frank H. Casbeer, Mrs. Edwin R. Dewey, Misses Mary Dillard, Washington, Ga.; Bess Hudson, Oklahoma City; Gladys Cusick, Arkansas City; Edith Lynn and Josephine Nye.

Necana club members were guests of Miss Blanche Boone for a pleasant afternoon yesterday, the club having been assembled in the apartments of Miss Boone's parents in the Marquette hotel.

Plans for the club's holiday week dance December 22 came up for discussion, after which the time was spent at auction bridge. Refreshments were served. Girls of the party were Misses Helen Thurman, Evelyn Connolly, Helen Dehoney, Louella Shields, Irene Campbell, Wynne Burkhard, Lolo Kewo, Anna Ingram, Roxie Marie Marr, Mary Walker, Martha Mowery, Maude Bradley and Boone.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Miller are entertaining Mr. Miller's mother, Mrs. Ellen H. Miller of Bartlesville.

Mrs. Marie Lawson has returned to Tulsa after several weeks' absence and is with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex C. MacDonnell, 1740 South Boulevard avenue.

Of Interest to You.

The Teacup Inn finds more commodious quarters necessary in order to give its patrons better and more efficient service. We have leased the Elks dining room, Third street, north entrance, opposite the new post office and will be better prepared to give luncheons, teas and dinner parties than ever. We will be ready to receive you in our new home Monday, December 4. This is entirely independent of the Elks club. Everybody welcome.—Adv.

Thanksgiving Ball.

On the evening of the thirtieth, Thanksgiving, the Woodmen of the World will give a ball at the Convention hall, benefit of the W. O. W. band. Good dancing, good music and a good time.—Adv.

PRESIDENT OF CHILDREN'S DAY NURSERY BOARD.

—Photographed by Bass.

MRS. FRANK E. SHALLENBERGER.

An active figure in all club and social activities of the city is Mrs. Shallenberger, who has served as president of the Tulsa Woman's club, the Twentieth Century club's first president, and who now heads the board of managers of the day nursery.
